1. Introduction

This document outlines the Idsall School's expectation in relation to employee conduct and outlines the school's responsibility to the employee. This document mainly refers to conduct expected in the work place, including online, but may also cover conduct when representing the school e.g. whilst at training, attending work related functions or activities on social media that may affect the reputation of the school.

It should also be used in conjunction with other relevant policies and standards such as professional standards, child protection and safeguarding policies, behaviour policy, the disciplinary policy and the associated disciplinary rules as well as the contract of employment/written statement of particulars.

Given the nature of this establishment, this document should also be a guide to assist in ensuring children's and employees' safety. It, therefore, explains the responsibilities the school has toward employees and children/students on a whole school basis.

This code should be reviewed regularly by Trustees and reissued to staff after the review.

2. Duty of Care

This school has a duty of care to the students/children within it and also to all employees.

This duty should be at the heart of all employee and employer practice.

Students/children – employees within this school have a duty to keep students/children safe, promote their welfare and protect them from harm as outlined in "Keeping Children Safe in Education" 2021. Given the position of trust this places employees in, employees are expected to take reasonable steps to ensure students'/children's safety and well being. Please refer to the Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy that this school has adopted.

Employees – employers should provide a safe working environment and appropriate guidance regarding safer working practices. They should also ensure that employees are treated fairly and reasonably in all circumstances. Employees will be informed of all relevant policies as part of their induction. Where a new or revised policy is adopted, the school will ensure each employee has access to it.

In addition, each employee has a personal duty to take care of themselves and anyone else who may be affected by their actions or failings.

Employees should:

- Understand the responsibilities of their role and the sanctions should these not be followed.
- Act and be seen to act in the student's/child's best interest.
- Act in a way to protect the school's reputation.
- Avoid conduct which could lead to question over motivation and intentions.

- Act in line with school policy and procedure.
- Take responsibility for their own actions and behaviour.
- Speak up promptly about any concerns they have or anything they have witnessed that could give rise to concern.
- Have due regard that safeguarding children and their welfare is paramount and everyone's business.
- All school staff should make the Headteacher aware of any relationships and associations both within and outside of the workplace (including online) that may have implications for the safeguarding of children in school.
- Note that unjustifiable delay in reporting concerns is not acceptable.

Employers should:

- Clarify what is expected about an employee at work and where relevant, outside of work.
- Provide a safe and healthy working environment.
- Support your rights and recognise diversity.
- Foster a culture of openness and support.
- Ensure that appropriate policies are adopted, implemented, monitored and reviewed e.g. employee policies, safeguarding, child protection, code of conduct.
- Ensure that employees have access to and understand guidance, related policies and systems that are in place.
- Ensure that employees are not placed in a vulnerable position.
- Ensure that those who provide services or activities are aware of safeguarding policies and procedures.
- Treat employees reasonably and fairly.

3. Complaints

Should an employee have a concern with the way in which they are being treated by their employer, the Grievance process should be followed. Advice should be sought by the employee from their relevant trade union.

Should an employee have a complaint relating to the school, they should use the relevant policy e.g. Whistleblowing Procedures, Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy or any other procedure that the school has identified and adopted.

Should the employer have concerns regarding employee conduct, the employer should always try to resolve the matter at the lowest possible level i.e. through discussion with the employee. For more serious matters, the school may need to refer to the relevant employment policy e.g. discipline.

4. Employee Code of Conduct

This code covers a number of situations but does not cover all eventualities. Where it is necessary to refer to a specific school policy, this will be noted.

Furthermore, the document produced by the Safer Recruitment Consortium - Guidance on Safer Working Practice is universally regarded as a best practice guide to work alongside local policies.)

4.1 Dress and Appearance

All employees should dress in a manner that is appropriate for their role, individuals they work with and work they undertake, including online and virtual teaching.

Clothing and appearance should not:

- cause embarrassment or give rise to any misunderstanding
- be likely to be viewed as offensive, revealing or sexually provocative
- be considered to be discriminatory or culturally sensitive
- be political or represent contentious slogans

4.2 Behaviour

All employees have a responsibility to maintain public confidence in both the school and their own ability to provide an outstanding level of education and care, whilst safeguarding the welfare and best interest of the students/children they are responsible for.

Equally, all employees should be able to carry out their duties in an environment where all individuals treat each other fairly and with respect and dignity. Acts of discrimination, harassment or bullying, intentional or otherwise, will not be tolerated.

Employees should foster an approach which is aligned to the ethos of the school and understand the school's behaviour policy. Therefore, employees can expect to be treated reasonably and fairly.

It is not acceptable to behave in a manner which could question an employee's suitability to work with students/children or encourage others to make unprofessional comments or comments which could cause offence.

This level of behaviour is to be expected at all times when representing the school which includes attending such events as training and work related social functions.

With the rise of social media, it is not acceptable for employees to behave in such a way that would not uphold public confidence within the school. Please refer to the school's Safeguarding and Child Protection policy.

4.3 Confidentiality

Employees can expect to have their personal information secured confidentially. Personal matters should also be kept in the strictest of confidence.

Employees within the school may have access to private or sensitive information about the students/children within the school. These details must be kept confidential and only shared when it is in the child's best interest to do so.

The Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018) establishes a framework of rights and duties which makes personal information safe. Personal information is information about a living individual, who can be identified from the information.

This school is committed to protecting the privacy of individuals and handles all personal information in a manner that complies with the DPA 2018. It is the personal responsibility of all employees (temporary or permanent), Trustees, contractors, agents and anyone else processing information on our behalf to comply with this policy.

Storage of any such information should be in line with the Data Protection Act 2018.

Any deliberate breach of this policy could amount to a criminal offence under one or more pieces of legislation, for example, the Computer Misuse Act 1990 and the DPA 2018. All breaches will be investigated and appropriate action taken.

Employees should report concerns to a senior member of the school.

4.4 Gifts

Employees should not receive or accept gifts, loans, fees, hospitality or other reward which influences the way in which duties are carried out.

For transparency, if an employee is given low level “thank you” gifts from parents or children e.g. homemade gifts, flowers, chocolates, biscuits etc., they should let the school know. In all cases, a professional judgement should be made around what is acceptable, proportionate and appropriate. If in doubt, the employee should seek guidance from the Headteacher.

Employees have a responsibility to report any such reward or suspicions of any such awards to the appropriate person within the school.

4.5 Use of Internet and Social Media

The use of the internet and social media in the workplace can be very useful but also can be open to misuse. Employees must take every step to protect themselves when using such ‘media’ and must refer to the Social Media policy that is contained within the school Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy and E-safety Policy.

Employees must also be careful when using social media personally to ensure that no activity relates negatively on the school’s reputation. Should such information be brought to the school’s attention, the disciplinary process may be followed.

4.5 Use of technology

Staff are not permitted to use personal technology devices while working directly with students and/or during their hours of work. These should only be used away from areas children access.

Where professional technology devices are provided to staff for the purpose of their role and responsibilities, these are permitted.

Staff have a responsibility to model safe practice and use of technology devices at all times.

Staff engaging in online learning should display the same standards of dress and conduct that they would in the real world; they should also role model this to students and parents.

4.6 Raising Concerns – Safeguarding

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is everyone's responsibility. All staff should be committed to working in a culture where the values of the school and effective safeguarding are upheld; this includes openness, trust and honesty. All staff are responsible for implementing and reinforcing these values.

The Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy must be fully applied at all times:

Safeguarding-and-Child-Protection-Policy-Sep-2021-amended May 22.pdf

The "Working Together" 2018 and "Keeping Children Safe in Education" 2021 Parts 1-5 must be viewed on the same principle & Annex A & B.

The highest standards of safeguarding conduct are expected from the whole school community. It is important to note that, in particular, well known and peripheral areas of safeguarding concern should be paramount to a child's welfare namely;

- Four Defined Categories of Abuse - Sexual, Emotional, Physical and Neglect as defined in "Working Together" 2018
- Extremism & Radicalisation (Statutory - "Prevent duty guidance" March 2015)

Furthermore, staff are expected to encourage students to respect the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs. Staff should ensure that partisan political views are not promoted in the teaching of any subject in the school and where political issues are brought to the attention of students, reasonably practicable steps have been taken to offer a balanced presentation of opposing views to students.

Further areas (amongst others) for all staff to note are:

- Children That Have Gone Missing (T&W Missing Children Process 2016)
- Children Missing From Education - Whether Authorised or Not
- Poor/Irregular Attendance (Protocol for Identifying and Maintaining Contact with Children Not Receiving Education)
- Children Abused Through Exploitation (CATE) -T&W Pathway Process
- Harm
- Drug and substance misuse
- Suicide Intervention
- Fabricated and induced illness

School Child Protection and Safeguarding Policies will take account of all these issues and other areas and, therefore, staff conduct in addressing any safeguarding concerns is paramount and doing nothing is not an option. All concerns for a child's welfare should be responded to and reported as set out in our Safeguarding and Child Protection policy. A delay in responding and reporting concerns for a child's welfare beyond what is reasonably practicable is a breach of this code of conduct.

If anyone working in the school community identifies a concern about a breach of this code of conduct, they must 'speak up'. All those working in the school community must follow the school Whistleblowing Policy.

Creating a culture in which all concerns about adults (including allegations that do not meet the harms threshold) are shared responsibly and with the right person, recorded and dealt with appropriately, is critical. If implemented correctly, this should encourage an open and transparent culture; enable our school to identify concerning, problematic or inappropriate behaviour early; and minimise the risk of abuse. A culture of vigilance will help to ensure that adults working in or on behalf of our school are clear about professional boundaries and act within these boundaries, and in accordance with the ethos and values of the institution.

Low Level Concerns

All staff should report concerns that are of a 'low-level'. This can be a concern of any kind and can include a member of the school community acting in a way that:

- does not meet the allegations thresholds or of a level to refer to the LADO
- that does not uphold the school code of conduct, including out of work.

All 'low-level' concerns must be reported to the Headteacher. They may choose to delegate the investigation of 'low-level' concerns to other members of the senior leadership team. Failure to report or respond to such concerns would constitute a failure in professional responsibilities to safeguard children and promote welfare.

The school has a full policy on managing low level concerns and allegations against staff which can be found here Allegations Against Staff Policy May 2022.pdf.

Staff should understand the importance of challenging inappropriate behaviours between peers, including peer on peer sexual violence and sexual harassment. Downplaying certain behaviours, for example, dismissing sexual harassment can lead to a culture of unacceptable behaviours, an unsafe environment for children and in worst case scenarios, a culture that normalises abuse leading to children accepting it as normal and not coming forward to report it.

4.7 Conflicts of Interest

Employees must be mindful to avoid personal circumstances which could lead to conflict of interest and should discuss/report any potential conflicts of interest with the Headteacher as soon as possible.

4.8 Health and Safety

The school will endeavour to abide by Health and Safety legislation to ensure the safety and well being of employees at work.

Employees are expected to adhere to the school's Health and Safety Policy and guidance to keep themselves and others safe at work.

Employees also have their own duty of care to take care of themselves and anyone else affected by their actions or failings.
