

Select one task from each column to complete:

COLUMN A	COLUMN B Choose a quotation to explore in detail: what techniques and language have been used? What is the effect of each of these on the reader? Aim for at least two in each quotation.	COLUMN C
Write a summary of the book so far.	'Of late, it had been like the outermost ripple of a pool, merely the faint memory of a memory.' (Arthur thinking about what happened at Eel Marsh House).	Write your own blurb to accompany the book.
Write ten quiz questions on the book so far.	'Her appearance... was so pathetically wasted, so pale and gaunt with disease...' (Arthur's description of the woman who he sees at Mrs Drablow's funeral).	Write a description of Eel Marsh House as you imagine it.
Explain what the Gothic genre is and how you know the novel is written in this style.	'...the marshes themselves lay silent, still and shining.....Ahead the water was gleaming like metal.' (Arthur describing the setting as he approaches Eel Marsh House for the first time).	Create a poster for the theatre production of the book.
